

This map shows the location of the Water System's wells and tanks.

The area cross hatched in blue shows the portion of the aquifer that we draw water from. This is the DEP defined Zone II area of contribution.

